

National Marine Dredging Company (NMDC) is one of the leading dredging entities in the region, with over 33 years experience in prestigious and integral projects in Abu Dhabi and throughout the UAE. It is a publicly listed company (with paid-up capital assets valued at 169,000,000.00 AED) trading on the Abu Dhabi Stock Exchange, with the Government of Abu Dhabi owning 40% of its shares, and the remainder owned by UAE Nationals.

NMDC's business is currently conducted from its modern premises in Mussafah, which include multi-discipline workshops, slipways, and a fully supported administrative and technical departments.

National Marine Dredging Company (NMDC) based in Abu Dhabi (UAE), is looking for engineering graduates with:

- (1) Dredging background who will reinforce its dredging production team;
- (2) Background in geoscience for its geotechnical team;
- (3) Coastal background for its numerical modelling team.

Are you pro-active, flexible and ready to work in a team of young engineers from renowned universities on international dredging and coastal projects?

Are you ready to face the challenges of a fast growing company?

Then NMDC welcomes you to open the door to exciting career opportunities and kindly invites you to apply for its traineeship. For more information, please send an email to mva@nmdc.ae (Mieke van Arkel) or visit: www.nmdc.com.